Milken Institute names Morgantown #2 Best Small City for a Working Retirement

MORGANTOWN – Morgantown is again rising to the top in rankings for best retirement cities.

Forbes.com reported that the Milken Institute's formulas used the city's 5.3% unemployment rate and a cost of living 8% below the national average to come up with the No. 2 Ranking on the Small Cities list for Best Cities for A Working Retirement.

They also noted that single-family homes for an average of $137,000 and the state's agreeable tax climate for senior citizens draws working retirees to Morgantown, in addition to abundant doctors per capita and a low crime rate.
